COLUMBIA, S. C., FRIDAY MORNING, DECEMBER 8, 1865.

VOL. I—NO. 216.

JOURNAL OF THE SENATE OF THE STATE OF SOUTH CAROLINA.

THURSDAY, DECEMBER 7, 1865.

The Senate proceeded with the second reading of a Bill to incorporate the Ireland Creek Timber Cutters' Company.

Mr. TRACY moved to amend by inserting, after "Charleston," in the third section, the words: "Under the direction of Edward Willis, A. R. Chisolm and E. A. Ballagner;" and after Walterboro, in the same section, the words: "Under the direction of John A. Burbridge, Ashbury Lowry and B. G. Price."

The Bill, which was agreed to, with the amendment, was agreed to, and was ordered to be sent to the House of Representatives.

A Bill (originating in the House of Representatives) to appoint Commissioners of Kirkwood, received the first reading, and was referred to the Committee on Incorporations and Engrossed Acts.

Mr. BUIST introduced a Bill to amend the law as to the inspection of flour; which received the first reading, and was referred to the Committee on Commerce, Manufactures and the Mechanic Arts.

The Senate proceeded to the SPECIAL ORDER FOR 11 O'CLOCK A. M.

A Bill to establish District Courts.

The question was upon the following amendment, offered by Mr. McCutchen, on Tuesday, December 5, which was pending on that day, when,

Upon motion of Mr. THOMPSON, the Special Order was discharged, and made the Special Order for yesterday, at 11 o'clock A. M., and was not then considered, but was made the Special Order for to-day, at the same hour, namely:

"Twenty per cent. on the amount of annual fees received for the approval of contracts in his District: Provided, No District Judge receive a greater salary or compensation in the aggregate than fifteen hundred dollars per annum."

Upon motion of M THOMPSON, the amendment was ordered to lie upon the table.

On account of the indisposition of the President, the Hon. F. J. Moses took his seat as President pro tem.

Mr. THOMSON moved an amendment to be added at the end of the same section; which amendment was amended to read as follows, and was agreed to:

For Abbeville District, $700; for Anderson, $500; for Barnwell, $700; for Beaufort, $1,000; for Berkeley, $1,000; for Clarendon, $500; for Chesterfield, $500; for Chester, $500; for Colleton, $1,000; for Darlington, $500; for Edgefield, $800; for Fairfield, $500; for Georgetown, $1,000; for Greenville, $500; for Horry, $500; for Kershaw, $500; for Lancaster, $500; for Laurens, $500; for Lexington, $500; for Marlboro, $500; for Marion, $500; for Newberry, $500; for Orangeburg, $500; for Pickens, $500; for Richland, $1,000; for Spartanburg, $500; for Sumter, $700; for Union, $500; for Williamsburg, $500; for York, $500.

Mr. Thomson's amendment proposed, for Charleston, $900.

Mr. TILLMAN moved to insert, for Charleston, $1,000.

Mr. TOWNES moved to insert, for Charleston, $1,500; and the yeas and nays were ordered upon the question, and they are as follows:

Those who voted in the affirmative are: Hon. F. J. Moses, President pro tem, and Messrs. Bratton, Johnson, Kershaw, Lawton, McQueen, Townes and Townsend.

Those who voted in the negative are: Messrs. Beatty, Buist, Davant, Dozier, Grisham, Hemphill, McCutchen, McDuffie, Reid, Richardson, Shingler, Skipper, Sullivan, Tillman, Thomson, Tracy, G. W. Williams, J. H. Williams, Wilson and Winsmith.

In the affirmative, 8.

In the negative, 20.

The motion was therefore lost.

The question then recurred upon Mr. Tillman's amendment; which was agreed to, namely, for Charleston, $1,000.

Upon motion of Mr. THOMPSON, the Special Order for to-morrow, at 12 o'clock M., and the Special Order for 2 P. M. discharged and was made the Special Order for to-morrow, at the same hour.

On motion of Mr. KERSHAW, the Special Order for half-past 11 o'clock A. M. was discharged, and made the Special Order for to-morrow, at 11 o'clock A. M.

Mr. HEMPHILL offered the following resolution:

Resolved, That the President and Directors of the Bank of the State of South Carolina be authorized to negotiate a loan of one hundred thousand dollars, for a term not exceeding twelve months; for the payment of which the faith and credit of the State are hereby pledged, and the proceeds of said loan shall be held exclusively for the use of the State.

Mr. TILLMAN moved to amend, so that it would read:

Resolved, That his Excellency Jas. L. Orr, be authorized to negotiate, &c. Mr. KERSHAW moved, as an amendment to the amendment, that the resolutions be referred to the Committee on Finance and Banks.

During the debate which ensued, Mr. G. W. WILLIAMS called for the previous question, which motion being put, was agreed to.

The question was then upon referring to the Committee on Finance and Banks, and the yeas and nays were ordered to be taken, and they are as follows:

Those who voted in the affirmative are: Messrs. Beatty, Boozer, Kershaw, Reid, Tillman, Thomson and Williams.

Those who voted in the negative are: Hon. F. J. Moses, President pro tem, and Messrs. Arthur, Bratton, Buist, Davant, Dozier, Hemphill, Johnson, Lawton, McCutchen, McDuffie, McQueen, Richardson, Skipper, Sullivan, Townes, Townsend, Tracy, G. W. Williams, Wilson, Winsmith.

The College of Charleston.

We are gratified to learn that this venerable institution is to be re-opened on the 1st of January ensuing, under an able corps of professors. In consequence of the interruptions of regular instruction for several years, the wants of the young men of the South are peculiar, and general sentiment calls for modifications of our systems of education to meet those wants. The expediency of a re-organization of the College was therefore referred by the trustees to a committee, consisting of the Hons. H. D. Lesesne, W. D. Porter and Geo. Buist, who reported on the 16th ultimo, recommending an enlargement of the basis of educational benefit, chiefly by two measures. First, by admission, in addition to the students pursuing the regular curriculum, of other students to a partial course, under certain regulations; and secondly, by the delivery of lectures at the college by the professors at night, for the benefit of persons who, desiring liberal instruction, are unable to enjoy it in the ordinary mode—the professors to determine the subjects and order of the course, and to make a moderate charge for it.

The Committee also recommended that, to meet the exigencies of the times, the charge to students be ten dollar per quarter.

The report of the Committee was adopted by the Board of Trustees, and will form the basis of future operations.

The Faculty consists of the following gentleman, viz:

Dr. N. Russell Middleton, President of the Faculty and Horry Professor, &c.

Dr. Lewis R. Gibbes, Professor of Mathematics and Natural Science.

Fred A. Porcher, Esq., Professor Belles Lettres, History, &c.

Rev. James W. Miles, Professor of Greek and Latin Classics.

John McCrady, Esq., Assistant Professor of Mathematics.

F. S. Holmes, Esq., Professor of Paleontology, Mineralogy, &c., and Curator of the Museum.

The library of the College is large and valuable, and will, in the course of a few months, perhaps a few weeks, be opened under the charge of Dr. Frampton, lately appointed Librarian.

To the liberal and choice donation made some years ago by Dr. Frampton, will be added the rare and select collection of books bequeathed by the late venerable and accomplished Judge King. These collections were sent for safety during the war into the interior, and we are happy to say, are safe. The more valuable and rare portions of the Museum were also sent away, and are safe. Both the books and the museum will be brought back, it is hoped, as soon as the railroads are completed.

To the names of the Hon. Elias Horry, Dr. Lingard A. Frampton and the Hon. M. King, known as liberal benefactors of the College, the institution now adds the name of Ephraim M. Baynard, who, by deed executed in April, 1864, made the College a magnificent benefaction, thus entitling himself to the high distinction of be a prominent promoter of liberal education.
